

Azzie Booker

December 17, 1918 - January 26, 2016

Azzie Lee Halley Booker was born in Tuscaloosa, Alabama on December 17, 1918. Her parents were Doshie Wilkerson Booker and Father Willie Halley. She was raised by her mother and stepfather Willie Booker in Clearwater, West Virginia and later moved to Louisville, Kentucky who are deceased along with her Grandmother, Drucilla Wilkerson and Grandfather Anthony Wilkerson, Fannie Wilkerson (Great-Grandmother), Pearl Wilkerson (Uncle) who served in (WWII), Pinky and Lucilla Wilkerson (Aunts), Lubelle Wilkerson, Drusilla Wilkerson, Elmo and Isaiah Wilkerson, (Cousins).

After attending Kentucky Public Schools, she later worked in the Hospitality industry before relocating to Washington, D.C. for a better life. She worked in various industries during her work tenure. Her last employment was with St. Dominic's Catholic Priory in Washington, DC in SW. Azzie was a diligent, dedicated and efficient worker in being responsible for the Brothers and Catholic Priest who resided at the Priory with Seamstress and Clothes Care. She learned how to ride a bike, swim and took piano lesson from Lucille Banks Robinson School at the young age of 50. She retired after 20 years at the age of 80 from St. Dominic's Church and was given a farewell retirement party by the church on December, 2000. She spent her spare time after retirement visiting the sick, missionary with the church, outreach and spending time with her Daughter, Phyllis A. Clark, Grandchildren, Great-grandchildren and friends on occasions. She enjoyed traveling, gospel music, attending church programs, sightseeing, nature, the outdoors, watching the Olympics

Ice skating and wrestling, etc., on T.V. and loved a challenge to a math problem, cooking for her family and extended family and friends anytime. She was a Humanitarian who loved all animals of all type. She once rescued a stray cat that frequented her neighborhood and took him to the Vet on the bus in a cardboard box to be seen, who was diagnosed with cancer. She also cried over a goldfish that accidentally went down the kitchen sink while she was cleaning the fishbowl. She had a heart of "Gold", very loving and caring being. She was very witty, funny and always willing to help anyone in their time of need. She took her grandchildren when small to church, sightseeing, on various outings, picnics in the parks with their friends and sometimes involved them in rummage sales projects in her neighborhood park where they gained sales experience and learned how to make their own money while having fun at the same time.

She leaves behind 1 Daughter, Phyllis A. Clark and her Grandsons, Cornell F. Evans, Jr., Christopher Cornelius Evans and Cedric Maurice Evans, Sr., and Step-Grandson, Kenny Evans and Step-Granddaughter, Chontae Evans. Great-Granddaughters are Deonna Menetra Evans, CeShelle Ariel Evans, Cherie Evans, Ahjai Kelsey Evans, Jasmine Evans, Brandy and Angel Ivey. Great-grandsons, Jamal M. Evans, Akanni Evans, Jacari Roberts and Cedric M. Evans, Jr.

“ Grandma, More than missing you, more than crying that you are gone, I know you have left an everlasting impression on all of us. Your presence is still felt in my soul everyday. I think about when you use to walk from work at 80 years old. How you always gave comforting words even in the worst times. I will always remember that you didn't complain and didn't cry about situations. But I would see you faithfully praying on your knees for hours every night, and every morning. This is the reason I know I am blessed and still alive. I know your impact was so powerful that the blessings on you fell on your entire family. I miss you, I love you eternally, I thank God that you were my grandmother, thank you for birthing my mother and giving so much strength.

You are always in my thoughts and in my heart daily. I will never forget you.

Your Grandson,
Chris

“ I think about you all the time 😞 So much has happened in my life, I'm not sure how hard to try. Tears are falling constantly, Man Da Memories Are Still The Same. I think about your beautiful smile, That I pray I see again someday. The sweet smell of your perfume, Has slowly faded away. But all your helpful teachings, Are always here to stay. I can't express how much you taught me, So much I can't explain. All the times I can remember, Never once I heard you complain. So many hearts were broken, The day God called you home. It seems as though each one of us Were left to survive alone. I Love Yuh 😞 Grandma !' We Will Meet Again Happy Birthday Lady

“ It is hard for me to really adjust that you are gone grandma, sometimes I don't believe it, you were blessed to live 98 years, that is more than a lifetime... Though we still hurt that you are gone and our hearts are heavy many days, I know you finally get to see Jesus, so i know you are in glory no doubt, you were the only person I knew who would pray from sun up to sun down. You set a good example for all of us and we are grateful left a seed which is our precious mom. Love and miss you Gramma.

“ Mom You are Immensely Missed and Loved Eternally. “Thank You” God for Choosing this Loving, Warm, Caring Woman to be my Mother, a Grandmother and a Great-grandmother Who Was and Will Always be Sacrificing, Giving, Sweet, Kind, Understanding and Compassionate. I Will Miss Your Warm Embrace And the Comfort that You Always Gave Me and your Family When It Was Needed Your Listening Ear And Having The Confidence That What I Would Share With You Was Kept In Confidence. A Mother And A Friend You Were And Still Are And Always Will Be. Thank You God for Allowing Me to Spend Your Last 5 Days With You and Even Your Last Few Hours, Minutes and Seconds Of Your Life and to Experience You Transition from Life to Death onto Eternity And to See the Peacefulness and Serenity on Your Lovely Face After Breathing Your Last Breathe. Your Heavenly Father Came to Get His Daughter and Take Her Home After 98 Years that he Blessed Us with. No More Pain, Discomfort or Struggle. Be At Peace and Good Rest You have Reunited with Our Family that was called away too soon. I Love You Momma, Grandmom and Great-Grandmom.
