“ I am so very sorry to hear the passing of a good friend. I worked with Barry for many years and found that he was very kind at heart, always staying true to family and friends. It is a great loss to the world.

May he Rest In Peace and return to his mothers arms, which he so dearly missed.

Marilyn Graham - October 01, 2020 at 07:33 PM

Thank you so much Marilyn for the memories you and my God son shared. I became Barry's godmother when he was in the third grade. He was my son and I loved him so much. But I know he is in the bosom of God.

“ My dear friend Barry. I struggle to be able to even share that I have lost such a great soul and so close my friend. I adore you and will always love you so many times over as we used to say. Life here for me and all of us will be so different without you. Our memories will stay in my heart. We have so many. Thank you for sharing my life and with my family. My pug girls love you still. I pray for you and your soul. All my love to you my dearest friend. 💜

“ Wow, I am still in disbelief. I cannot accept the fact that you are gone. Barry was my manager at Wells Fargo. He definitely was one of a kind. To have known him , was to love him. A life gone to soon. Continue to rest peacefully until we meet again!!

Hi Sarah this is Barry's godmother thank you for your words of comfort. Barry talked about you all the time. I'm still in unbelief that my baby is gone. Just take his passing hurts my heart so bad. But because I said my final goodbye to him and when they closed his casket I finally hit me that it is real.

“ I am Mrs. Renee Shalon Owens-Price and I am Barry's godmother. I have been his godmother since he was in the 3rd grade. So he's is actually my son I watched him and helped him to become the man he became. Many people don't consider a godmother to be a mother. But it doesn't take blood to be someone's mom. It only takes being there and when it counts and loving them unconditionally with a sincere heart. I just want to tell my son Barry see you later and I love you with every fiber of my being. Continue to rest in Paradise. Love Eternally mom.💖💖
