

Charles Worthington Reeves Jr.

June 23, 1952 - March 14, 2023

On June 23, 1952 Charles Worthington Reeves Jr was born to the late Charles Sr and Lula Mae Reeves in Washington, DC. Charles was one of six children. Charles attended District of Columbia Public Schools, graduated from Eastern Senior High School in 1970 and worked for DC Federal Government.

He was preceded in death by his parents, grandparents, and two of his siblings Jacqueline Hunter and Sheila Reeves.

After dedicating 40 years of service to DC's Federal Government Charles retired from The Architect of the Capitol in February 2023.

Charles had many pastimes that he enjoyed such as listening to jazz and blues music, dancing (doing the two step which he learned from his mother) and watching football. He was very passionate about music and his love for Tina Marie, Eddie Harris, Les McCann and Miles James.

You could always find him in his chair watching old western movies and shouting at the TV as his favorite team, The Washington Commanders was playing football. He was an avid football fan for 60+ years which all began when he started attending The Washington Redskins football games at The Stadium Armory with his dad. He had many favorite players throughout the years such as Joe Namath, Charley Taylor and Doug Williams.

Charles continued his life in great spirits until he took his last breath on March 14, 2023. His legacy will be cherished and carried on by his brothers; Cornell M. Williams Sr. (Laverne Williams) and Patrick Reeves and sister Lorraine V.

Reeves; nieces, nephews and a host of family and friends.
