“ *Dear Family,
I would like to express my heartfelt sympathy in the loss of your love one. May the fond memories shared with her and the resurrection hope Jesus spoke of in the Bible at John 5:28,29 be a source of comfort during this time of grief and pain.*

“ *I am very sorry for the recent loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Charlotte . I have a brief encouraging message I would like to share with you from the Bible. The Bible can be a great source of both comfort and hope during this most difficult time in your lives. For an example, at Revelation 21:3-5 it assures us that the day is soon coming when our most loving Heavenly Father is going to wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes and that even pain and death will be no more. I hope after reading this it will be of some comfort to each one of you. If later you would like to learn more from the Bible about why we die or why does a loving God allow so much suffering and injustice, please feel free to go to the website: www.jw.org to find satisfying answers.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. There is a very comforting scripture found at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can look forward to a time when death will be done away with forever. I hope that this scripture can bring some comfort during this time.

“ Please accept my condolences on your loss. May the God of all comfort give you the strength to endure. (2 Corinthians 1:4) We must always remember that death is an evil that is not brought about by God. (James 1:13) God gives us a hope for the future. (Revelation 21:4). May you find comfort in his word.
