“ Hi Cliff,

I chose today to write you this letter of appreciation since today, November 10th, has always been of utmost importance to you. HAPPY BIRTHDAY, to my proud Marine! I remember you laughing and smiling as we would say, "Once a Marine, always a Marine!" I know your Corps values made you who you are today. Thanks for sharing all the stories.

I cherish all the times we stayed up all night talking on the phone and in person until dawn laughing, crying, and being so happy we had each other. We have so much in common and are very different all at the same time. We sure had some good times!

Happy Veteran's Day tomorrow, too! Sargent Clifford Lewis Fanucci, Jr., we salute you! Thank you for your service!

Thank you for a lifetime of love and all that goes with it. Things that only you and I have shared. As I started to write some memories we shared from day one until now, I realize I could never completely capture the essence of all we went through together.

I will always remember your special prayer to Jesus and have often prayed it as well. It's a keeper!

Remember how we laughed when you called me your "twin" and I responded as I looked in the mirror, "That's great, I look like a female version of you!" You laughed so hard and said "I know you do!"

So, Cliff, please send everyone my love and give the "lil ones" lots of kisses and hugs for us. I love you all!

Last, but certainly not least, I represent you Cliff, as I thank two amazing women of God who became your last two earthly friends - who not only cared for you tirelessly for weeks, but refused to leave their Marine alone. Thank you, Virginia for finding us and Kenya for giving Cliff hope everything would be ok.

Thank you, Kenya for never giving up and seeing to it that a fellow Marine receives the honor and dignity he deserves. "Once a Marine always a Marine!"

Love Forever & Always,

Your Sis
