

De'Andre Marcus Coleman

October 28, 2005 - June 15, 2022

On June 15, 2022 De'Andre Coleman suddenly departed this life. He was born on October 28, 2005 in Washington, DC to Dallas Coleman and Damion Gray.

De'Andre was educated through DC Public Schools. He enjoyed going out with friends to loud and eccentric places. He loved listening to music, playing football, basketball and other interactive and competitive sports. He was a very hyperactive person yet he always cared for and loved his family no matter the circumstances. He was very outspoken, determined and independent. He always tried to find a way to get what he wanted before asking anyone for assistance. He was the life of the party and a loveable guy. He always tried to meet everyone's standards until he realized he didn't need to. The only thing better than him was his smile. When he smiled it made everything okay. He was a great person.

Along with De'Andre parents, he is survived by 2 brothers: Da'Marie Coleman and Damian Coleman, 3 sisters: Da'Meka Coleman, Dah'Syia Coleman and Faith Ware, a godsister Charlie Alston. Aslo, Nyyana Tajae Thomas (expecting their daughter, Navaeh) and LaShawn Liverpool (expecting their child), and a host of family and friends.
