“ She was my sister in Christ and my sister in life for we had one fantastic mother. I thank God that he loaned her to me for a little while. We laughed together and we sometimes cried together and on many occasions we prayed together.

“ I am very sorry for the recent loss of your dear loved one, Mrs. Scott . I have a brief encouraging message I would like to share with you from the Bible. The Bible can be a great source of both comfort and hope during this most difficult time in your lives. For an example, at Revelation 21:3-5 it assures us that the day is soon coming when our most loving Heavenly Father is going to wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes and that even pain and death will be no more. I hope after reading this it will be of some comfort to each one of you. If later you would like to learn more from the Bible about why we die or why does a loving God allow so much suffering and injustice, please feel free to go to the website: www.jw.org to find satisfying answers.

“ I would like to express my condolences to the family and friends of Evenly Scott. There will come a time when death and mourning will be no more. (Revelations 21:3,4) This is what our loving God, Jehovah has promised. We also have the hope of seeing our loved ones again. (John 5:28,29) May those verses bring you some comfort in your time of mourning.
