

Hilda Mae Jackson

March 8, 1946 - September 2, 2024

Hilda Mae Jackson, a beloved wife, mother, family member, and friend, passed away on September 2nd, 2024, at the age of 78. She was born on March 8th, 1946, in Sunbury, North Carolina, to Curtis and Ruth Goodman. Hilda attended Central High School in Gatesville, North Carolina. She grew up in a close-knit family with six sisters: Thelma Petty (deceased), Elsie Jones, Hattie Goodman Ralph (deceased), Betty Brickhouse (deceased), Linda Bowen, and Frances Minnifield (deceased); and three brothers: Alton Lee (deceased), Curtis (deceased), and William

“Little Buddy

” Goodman (deceased).

Hilda met Kenneth Melvin Jackson Sr., a veteran, and they were married in January 1968. They were inseparable throughout their marriage, and together they raised two children, Kenneth Melvin Jackson Jr. and Garry Anthony Jackson (deceased).

Hilda was known for her bubbly and outgoing personality. She always wore a smile and brought joy to everyone around her. She rarely got frustrated, and if she did, it never lasted long—her beautiful spirit wouldn't allow it. Hilda enjoyed spending time with her family and attending church, always strengthening her faith in the Lord. She could often be found catching up on social and political news, enjoying quiet moments alone with her toast and coffee each morning, and solving crossword puzzles.

Hilda is survived by her son, Kenneth Melvin Jackson Jr.; four granddaughters,

Kendra and Tierra Jackson, Shaffon, and London Hickman; and five great-grandchildren: A'

zara Spears, A'

sai Anderson, Harper, Winter, and Sevens

Brown.
