(1) To everything there is a time to every purpose under the heave:

(2) A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

(3) A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

(4) A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn and a time to dance:

(5) A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather; a time to refrain from embracing:

(6) a time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep and a time to cast away:

(7) a time to vend and a time to sew, a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love and a time to hate, a time of war and a time of peace.
