

Jonathan Bullock

April 14, 1963 - January 9, 2024

Jonathan David Bullock was born on April 14, 1963 in Long Island, New York. His parents, Melvin and Thelma Bullock moved "Jon Jon," as his father called him, and "Jon," as he became to be known, to Richmond where he finished high school. Jon went on to attend Virginia Commonwealth University ("VCU") where he majored in business. He pledged the Delta Upsilon Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma at VCU in his freshman year.

After graduating from VCU, Jon was awarded an insurance franchise with Nationwide. The Jon Bullock Nationwide Insurance Agency was located on Broad Street in Richmond Virginia across the street from the Seigel Center where Jon had season tickets to his beloved VCU Rams basketball team.

Jon's parents pre-deceased him. He leaves to cherish, many cousins in New York and Maryland including Beverly Meinhardt, Donna Satchell, and Rosalyn Bullock.

“ There are some people you just always expect to see. Not because they are the life of the party or anything like that. But because they were always there. And it seems different when they aren't. That's how i think about Jon. My heartfelt condolences to his family and his PBS brothers who I know mourn his loss. His presence will be missed. Sleep in peace, Jon. - Sandy Reynolds
