

Lillie Mae Brown

June 17, 1923 - June 19, 2018

Lillie Mae Brown was born on June 17, 1923 in Amherst, Virginia. After moving to Washington D.C., she worked for Admiral and Mrs. Robert Carney for 45 years.

She went home to be with the Lord on Tuesday, June 19, 2018 at the age of 95. She is survived by two daughters, Loraine and Patrice; five cousins, Martha Ann, Everett, Eugene, Mary Lou, and Lillie; six grandchildren, Stephanie, Everett, Kevin, Charisma, Artecka, and Marquell; 15 great-grandchildren; six great-great grandchildren; and seven God-children.

She enjoyed baking (especially sweet potato pie), sewing, and eating Popeyes chicken and anything chocolate. She sewed little girl dresses for weddings and made alterations on clothing for the residents of Knox Hill. She was a member of Knox Hill's literacy and quilting clubs. The club was recognized for their excellent quilting of an AIDS quilt. She will be remembered for her caring, giving, and confident attitude.
