

LIZZIE MAE EAVES

November 18, 1935 - March 7, 2024

Lizzie (Elizabeth) Mae Eaves passed peacefully from this life the morning of March 7th. She was always loved and supported by her family. Lizzie Mae Ingram was born on November 18, 1935 to the late Floyd and May Flower Ingram. Her place of birth was at the Gallinger Municipal Hospital in Washington, DC. Elizabeth was preceded in death by her husband Carl Eaves.

Elizabeth graduated from Cardoza High School in Washington, DC on June 18, 1953. Elizabeth accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior. She talked fondly about her four children, and spending time with her grandchildren. She also enjoyed word find puzzles, The Price is Right and other game shows, walking, singing, making people laugh, and reading the dictionary. She always had a habit of writing all 50 states of the United States and their capital, yet she never failed in not being able to recall two of the capitals every time. It was so funny. As a caring mother, friend, Christian and neighbor, she never failed in her efforts to keep going regardless of how hard times would get.

Lizzie (Elizabeth) Mae Eaves leaves behind to cherish her memory and celebrate her life her daughters Linda Ingram and Sharon Green, 2 sons Michael Ingram and Timothy Eaves, 4 grandchildren Gary Stewart, Terrine Ingram, Caprice Green and Tyrell Green, 3 great grandchildren Ethan Stewart, Talyiah Ingram, and Music Stewart, and a host of extended relatives
