

Ms. Nikisha Audrice Hinton Richard

April 18, 1974 - July 26, 2017

Nikisha Audrice Richard, better known as "Niki" was born on April 18, 1974 in Washington, DC to the late Michael R. Hinton and Beverly Ann Hinton. She was a beautiful child and never cried unless she was hungry or needed changing.

Niki was educated in the District of Columbia Public Schools. She grew up in Southeast, DC and as an adult she moved to Maryland, where she created lasting friendships with her neighbors.

Niki loved her family. She especially loved her Mother, Husband, Children, Grandchildren, Brothers and Sisters. She loved to look good. She also loved to attend the Kingdom Hall meetings of Jehovah's Witnesses at Crownsville Maryland and Conventions in Richmond, Virginia. Niki never missed the Memorial of Christ Jesus' Death since she was a child at the International Convention Fed Ex Field in Landover, Maryland.

Niki leaves to cherish her memory her loving Husband, Michael Richard. Devoted Mother, Beverly Tyson Harley. Her children whom she adored, Bre'Nae, Bre"Shawna, Mikel, Kyree, Brittany and Amber. Her four sisters, Cherry, Urania, Yolanda and Diana. Three Brothers, Michael, Jason, and Leon. Adopted Sisters, Erica, and Lala; Adopted Brother, CJ. Grandchildren, D'Nay, Mya, Kassed, Khaliel, Lloyal, Azhyon, Azhauni, CaLynn, KenzLee,
