

Mrs Sharon Acklin

April 3, 1956 - April 18, 2020

Sharon Rene Acklin, 64, was granted her wings with her family by her side on April 18, 2020, in Washington DC.

She was born on April 3, 1956 in Washington DC at DC General Hospital. She Graduated from McKinley Technology High School and then went on to work for the State Department for over 20 years and later worked for the Department of Agriculture before retiring. Sharon was highly intelligent and at a very young age considered a genius. Sharon later went on to further her education at Strayer University online.

She could always be found in her spare time at the casinos or taking her family to the carnivals and getting crabs. Sharon enjoyed eating out especially at Red Lobster.

Sharon was preceded in death by her husband (Alton Acklin) of NC, mother (Mary Idella Fossie) of NC, father (Oscar Fossie), and oldest son (Jermaine Acklin) of Washington, DC

Sharon leaves to cherish her memory her children, Shardonna A. Acklin, Jamal L. Slaughter, her brother Harkless Fossie, niece Cherry Wooten, her six grandchildren Jermonte Crutchfield, Ja'Von Crutchfield, Tiara Crutchfield, Jermaine Blount, Alonzo Mejia, Sharne' Belk, two great grandchildren Jayceon Murphy, Kyla Murphy and a host of other family members and friends.

AN

Grandma i know you cant read this but i miss you so much and i love you. Im doing good right now im tryna stop fighting and start that fashion business i always told you i was going to start. You always told m,e belive in myself. Me and mommy dont really get along how we used to but i dont really care . My attitude got worse and i just start crashing out . Theres this boy and he so cute but we are not in a relationship he said hes going through a lot right now and i am too. Im about to be 13 this year and i dont know how would i have turned out if i never met you , You were my peace in life. Life have been hard i dont get along with nobody in my family . only aunt divida and her kids. I miss you so much i really hate that you left so early in my life. Jamal aka your son said he killed you i cried and cried at night when he told me that. I cant even call him dad anymore he lost all my respect when he told me he killed you. love you . ill see you in some years bye.

“ This is your daughter reminiscing about the times we shared together. You were my best friend. It took your death for me to realize no one cares about me like you did. I spent so much time with you before you passed but I wish I could've spent eternity with you. Life is okay. Found a new job as a concierge right by slaughter old house. I love you mommy I'll be with you soon! I always think about you. Damn time really flies. You were just thirty living on Hartford street. You aged gracefully and quickly. I love u so much. I'm still here fighting for us.
