

Mr Stanley Davis

September 9, 1957 - November 16, 2018

In the still hours of the morning on Friday, November 16, 2018, God gave orders to the Angels to bring Brother Stanley Davis to rest; he gently closed his eyes and went home to Jesus.

Stanley was born on September 9, 1957 to the late Fredrick Davis and Louise Phillips Davis. Stanley was born in Washington, DC. At an early age, he accepted the walk with Christ and joined People Union Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Reverend Moses in Washington, DC.

Stanley attended DC public school. He received a certificate in Welding from the Job Corp in Boston, Mass.

Stanley was an awesome painter and landscaper which he enjoyed helping other people. He enjoyed watching his beloved Washington Wizards and the Mighty Redskins. Basketball was his favorite sport which he enjoyed playing with his friends in the neighborhood and Rec center. He was also known as the ping pong king. His connection with animals was truly unmatched especially with "Skip" and "Cat Cat"

Stanley was preceded in death by his father, brother and grandparents. Stanley leaves to cherish his precious memories;
