

Theron Anthony Gray

February 26, 1945 - December 29, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the peaceful transition of Theron Anthony Gray, age 80, on December 29, 2025, in Washington, DC. A brilliant and curious man, Theron served in the Armed Forces as an infantryman and instructor, earned his law degree, and devoted his professional career to federal government service. A lifelong enthusiast, he found joy in music as an audiophile, in tennis and basketball, photography, cooking, technology, and the open road—interests that reflected a life committed to learning and refinement.

He is lovingly remembered by his sister, Brenda McKinney (Art), and his children: David Anthony Gray, Dawn-Marie Gray, Toussaint Crawford (Rimple), Theron William Crawford Gray, and Camille Michelle Gray.

Family and friends are invited to join us for his Funeral Mass on Friday, January 16, 2026, at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Archbishop Carroll High School or the Parkinson's Foundation.
