

Mr. Timothy Jerome Branch II

February 18, 1986 - October 28, 2019

Timothy Jerome Branch II, (T.J. aka Branch) son of Timothy Branch and Chandra Branch, born February 18, 1986, made his transition on October 28, 2019.

TJ was born and raised in Chicago, Illinois where he graduated from Lincoln's Challenge earning his high school diploma. He moved to Maryland in June 2004 with his mother where he pursued an Associates Degree in Psychology at Prince George Community College. TJ was ambitious and had goals to return to school to complete his education.

TJ began his career with Piedmont Airlines in 2007 at the age of 19 where he established friends that became his family. Throughout his life he carried a gentle giant spirit who offered kindness and help to all those around him. TJ was a lover of movies, hanging with friends and family and his beloved music equipment where he created beats. His collection of records was one his prize possessions. Also he was a huge sports fan. TJ loved his Chicago teams and was a big fan of his home town team the Chicago Bears. November 7, 2018, the greatest day of his life as he welcomed the birth of his first child Tristian Jerome Branch who he spent the rest of his days working hard and caring for.

He leaves to cherish his lovely memories to his mother Chandra Branch, Sister LaChandra Gerring (Ronald), nephew Christopher Butler, nephew

Robert Saffold III, Son Tristian Branch, Tristian's mother Tiarra Weedon, and a host of family and friends.

“ This still doesn't feel real. Feels like he is working an that's why is his missing from our presence. Tj was a kind , caring, smart , loving person! The impact he made in our lives an my family's lives was more than words can fit. He is truly missed. I'm going to miss our talks . I'm going to miss his smile. I'm praying for my amazing sister in law an my amazing nephews that he was a father figure to. Im praying for his son an the baby on the way, that we may be able to tell them all the amazing stories of their father as they grow. This loss reaches deep into our souls. We love you tj. We love you tiarra . An to his mother I'm so sorry you lost such an amazing son. May he rest in heavenly peace as he deserves nothing but that.

“ My son Timothy Jerome Branch II comes from a large family in Chicago IL, we are suffering a loss and are grateful for the condolences, my son will be returning to his place of birth after the memorial for his friends in Maryland and DC on November 9, 2019. Our family understands the relationships he established in his time in Maryland and DC and we are giving an opportunity for those people to say goodbye before we take him home. I would like to thank everyone for their thoughts and prayers.

“ Tiarra and sons, my heart aches for you my dearest friend. The love that you and TJ shared was true. You could see it when you looked at each other. He was a wonderful better half to you and a loving father to his son and wonderful stepdad to your two boys. Cherish those wonderful memories you share. Remember no one can take them from you or tarnish his love for you and the Boys. May God help you find peace and comfort in the days, months and years to come. Your family and friends are here to love and support you through this. Love you my friend. Lisa Ambrose ❤️
