“ I send my sincere condolences to you Viola's family. Know that when we last spoke on May 12 in the morning she was always Ms. Spunky. She was always speaking about her sons. Viola was a rare gem. Her honesty, compassion, professionalism and friendship will truly be missed When Viola first entered into my life her silliness was rare. Just a wiser person like myself, we instantly connected. In that short period of time she was always outspoken and straightforward. My prayers are with her family. God will bless your hearts and comfort you. Know she is the angel she always is.
