Winnie Mae Barnes (also known as Mae) was 82 years old when she went home to be with the Lord on Sunday February 17, 2019. Winnie was born July 16, 1937 in Wilson, NC to the late James (Buddy) Taylor and Emma (Big Mom) Taylor and the eldest of seven children. Winnie was preceded in death by her late husband David Barnes, daughter Wanda Parker, grandson Jacque Pate and her siblings, Flossie Harmon, Lossie Burnette, Willie James Taylor, Gray Tart Taylor and her partner of over 35-years Joseph Abney.

After completing her education she met and married David Barnes; they relocated to Washington, DC where she became a nurse for US Soldier and Airmen's Home for over 25 years. Mae found satisfaction in helping others especially the elderly and sharing the word of God. Her hobbies included crocheting, thrift store shopping and spending time in Walmart. She cherished the time spent with her grandchildren sharing her wisdom.

Winnie Mae is survived by two sisters, Daisy Edmonson and Lorraine Tyson; three children, Donahue Barnes, Emma Campbell, Jacquelyn Kiah and

Lawrence Harmon (Godson); six grandchildren – Wendy, Leonard, Tasheda, Wesley II, Lesley and Dominique; ten great grandchildren Taylor, Mishae, Le'Andre, Dion, Thomas, Lesley II, Wesley III, Zyon, Zion, and Ajanae; best girlfriends Alice Logan and Earnestine Pate; a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends.

*Hey Gabi!
Our family was here reminiscing on our grandmother & I ran across your comment on my uncle's post! I'm not sure if it's too late to get in contact with you to receive her mail. Would you be able to email me? 🙏 Thank you for your efforts in trying to contact us.
